EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. James J. Bitetto on Thursday March 3, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows: Claims 1-9 have been cancelled.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 10 has been found to be allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art fails to teach or suggest an infrastructure comprising: body parts wherein at least one body part includes a first member including at least a portion of a ball, a second member including a socket, a protrusion formed on the first member adjacent to the ball such that when the ball is received in the socket a rotation about a longitudinal axis of the first member is permitted while restricting an angular change between a longitudinal axis of the second member and the longitudinal axis of the first member, in combination with the remaining limitations of the claim.

Claim 22 has been found to be allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art fails to teach or suggest an infrastructure comprising: body parts wherein at least one body part includes a first member including at least a portion of a ball, a second member including a socket, a protrusion formed on the first member adjacent to the ball and having a portion extending beyond an opening of the socket such that when the ball is received in the socket a rotation about a longitudinal axis of the first member is permitted while restricting an angular change between a longitudinal axis of the second member and the longitudinal axis of the first member, in combination with the remaining limitations of the claim.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Faye Francis whose telephone number is 571-272-4423. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 6:30-3:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Mickey Yu can be reached on 571-272-4562. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
